

Child safety policy

8 July 2017

BERG Mt Martha is committed to child safety.

BERG Mt Martha:

- regards the safety of children working in conjunction with our volunteers to be of prime concern
- has zero tolerance for child abuse
- works to listen to and empower children
- seriously considers any allegations and concerns regarding children's safety, and immediately contacts the supervising adult
- is committed to promoting cultural safety for Aboriginal children and children from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, and to providing a safe environment for children with a disability.

Children who attend any events or activities organised by BERG Mt Martha are supervised by their parent, guardian, teacher or authorised adult such as a Scout Leader. Unsupervised children are not permitted to attend.
